Background of Galatians 6:7-9:

- The Gospel is under attack in Galatia.
 - Chapters 3-4: A defense of the Gospel
 - Chapters 5-6: A call to live in the new life and freedom provided through the Gospel.

“⁷ Do not be deceived: God cannot be mocked. A man reaps what he sows. ⁸ Whoever sows to please their flesh, from the flesh will reap destruction; whoever sows to please the Spirit, from the Spirit will reap eternal life. ⁹ Let us not become weary in doing good, for at the proper time we will reap a harvest if we do not give up.”

~Galatians 6:7-9~

1. A seed is no good outside of the dirt.

2. What we harvest is what we have planted.

- We cannot sow irresponsibility and reap success.
- We cannot sow laziness and reap reward.
- We cannot sow stinginess and reap a blessing.

3. You are not the only person sowing seeds.

“³⁷ Thus the saying ‘One sows and another reaps’ is true.”

~John 4:37~

4. We don’t plant and harvest in the same season.

¹ There is a time for everything,
and a season for every activity under the heavens:

² a time to be born and a time to die,
a time to plant and a time to uproot

~Ecclesiastes 3:1-2~

5. We reap in proportion to what we sow.

6. The time to plant is now.

“⁴Whoever watches the wind will not plant;
whoever looks at the clouds will not reap.”

~Ecclesiastes 11:4~

What are the things I am sowing into my spiritual life right now?

“²² But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy,
peace, forbearance, kindness, goodness,
faithfulness, ²³ gentleness and self-control.”
