Psalm 127

Unless the LORD builds a house, they who build it labor in vain; unless the LORD guards a city, the watchman stays awake in vain.

² It is futile for you to rise up early, to stay up late, to eat the bread of painful labor; this is how He gives to His beloved sleep.

³ Behold, children are a gift of the LORD, The fruit of the womb is a reward.

⁴ Like arrows in the hand of a warrior, So are the children of one's youth.

⁵ Blessed is the man whose quiver is full of them; They will not be ashamed when they speak with their enemies in the gate.

Lessons from Psalm 127

As human beings we were made to multiply our lives into the lives of others.

We are to live content in the person and purposes of God.

We are to give ourselves to build into future generations.
