Revelation 2:18-29 Douglas translation

¹⁸To the messenger of the church in Thyatira write:

This is what the Son of God, who has eyes like a fiery flame and feet like a precious metal, says, ¹⁹I know your works, namely your love, allegiance, service, and perseverance. I also know that the works you've done lately have been greater than those you did at first. ²⁰However, I have this against you - you continue to be tolerant toward the woman known as Jezebel. She calls herself a prophetess as she teaches and leads my slaves to commit sexually immoral acts and eat food sacrificed to idols.

²¹I gave her time to turn, but she does not want to turn from her sexual immorality. ²²Behold! I'm going to throw her down upon a sick bed, and bring tremendous suffering upon those committing adultery with her if they don't turn away from her works. ²³Then I will kill her children with a sure death. Thus, all the churches will know that I am the One who examines minds and hearts, and that I will give to each one of you according to your works. ²⁴To the others in Thyatira, who are not clinging to this teaching and have not known the deep things of Satan, as they are so-called, I say this: I'm not putting another burden on you.

²⁵You must remain committed to that which you are clinging to until the time I come back. ²⁶To the one who continues to prevail and remains obedient to my works unto the end, I will give authority over the nations. ²⁷Such a one will shepherd them with a rod of iron, like when clay pots are crushed, ²⁸just as I have received authority from my Father. Also, I will give the morning star to such an individual. ²⁹Let the one who has ears to hear listen to what the Spirit is saying to the churches.
