Revelation 4 Douglas translation

¹After these things I looked and - Behold! - a door had been opened in heaven. The first voice that I heard was like a trumpet. The voice was speaking with me, saying, "Come up here! I will reveal to you what must take place after these things." ²Instantly, I found myself in the Spirit. Then I beheld a throne that had been set in heaven and One sitting upon the throne. ³The Enthroned One's appearance was like a diamond and precious red stone. A halo encircling the throne looked like an emerald. ⁴Also encircling the throne were twenty-four thrones. Upon the thrones were seated twenty-four elders. They were wearing white garments and golden crowns upon their heads. ⁵Lightening, blasts, and thunder burst forth from the throne. The seven lamps, which are the seven spirits of God, were burning in front of the throne. ⁶It was like a sea of glass in front of the throne, similar to crystal. In the midst of the throne, as well as all around it, were four living creatures full of eyes in the front and the back. ⁷The first living creature was like a lion, the second living creature was like a sacrificial calf, the third living creature had a face like a man, and the fourth living creature was like a flying eagle. ⁸Each one of the four living creatures had six wings and were full of eyes all around and within. They would not stop, day or night, declaring - Holy Holy Holy, Lord God Almighty, The One who was, the One who is, and the One who's coming ⁹Whenever the living creatures will give glory, honor, and thanks to the One seated upon the throne, who lives forever and ever, ¹⁰the twenty-four elders will fall down before the One sitting upon the throne. They will bow down to worship the Living One forever and ever, and they will throw their crowns before the throne, declaring ¹¹Worthy are You, our Lord and God, to receive glory, honor, and power because You created all things, and, through Your will, they existed and were created.
