Revelation 8:1-5 Douglas Translation

¹Then, when He opened the seventh seal, a silence ensued in heaven that lasted a half hour. ²Furthermore, I saw the seven angels who were standing before God. They were given seven trumpets. ³Another angel came forth and was positioned upon the alter. The angel was holding a golden incense burner. He was given a large amount of incense so that he could in turn offer it, along with all the prayers of the holy ones, on the golden alter in front of the throne. ⁴Smoke from the incense, along with the prayers of the holy ones, drifted up before God from the angel's hand. ⁵The angel then took the incense burner, filled it to the brim with fire from the alter, and threw it down to earth. Thunder claps, cries, lightings and an earthquake came about as a result.
