

Welcome to CAC!

We're glad that you have joined us this morning. We invite you to worship with us as we realign our perspective and remind ourselves of God's work in and around us. If you're new to CAC, please don't hesitate to contact us at cacharrisburg.org or visit us on Facebook.

CAC NEWS

Serving Opportunity: We are actively looking for ways to care for community members, and to show gratitude to those serving the community in this season. Our own Carrie Nahkla works at The Gardens at Blue Ridge Nursing Home among some of the most vulnerable members of our community and has said that while residents are quarantined it is really easy for them to grow restless and depressed by the lack of interaction with others. As a result, two of the ways that we could care for them is to send them notes of encouragement letting them know people care about them, and to get them adult coloring books and colored pencils to give them a way to keep active. For the next several weeks we will have a bin just inside the doors of the church where you can drop off cards or supplies, and then Carrie will help us distribute them. Please contact the church office if you have any questions.

Stay Connected: During this time that we aren't physically together, you can still stay connected to CAC by subscribing to our email updates. If you don't already receive them, contact the church office. You can also stay connected through our Facebook page. This week, we also launched a private group within our page so that we can share information, encouragement, and observations within just the CAC family.

Do you have a need: If you have any need, don't hesitate to contact us. We can be of support to our family in prayer and in tangible needs. Contact the office directly or use the website forms to reach us.

Message Reflection

As we think about the impact of the resurrection over the next few weeks, let's begin by considering how the resurrection causes us to be a people of living hope. Let's consider how even in the midst of less than ideal circumstances, we can be a people that live in such a way that it reflects a growing, living, lively hope in what God has done on our behalf. Let's recognize that our hope is not circumstantial, but rather "imperishable, undefiled, and unfading" (v.3).
