

Welcome to CAC!

We're glad that you have joined us this morning. We invite you to worship with us as we realign our perspective and remind ourselves of God's work in and around us. If you're new to CAC, please don't hesitate to contact us at cacharrisburg.org or visit us on Facebook.

CAC NEWS

MISSION UPDATE – CREATIVE ACCESS: During the quarantine, an Alliance worker has been training to provide healing prayer for people with issues such as post-traumatic stress and memories, unforgiveness, or family histories that are severely hampering them in the present. One of his contacts is seeking help in an area that has been troubling him for years. Ask the Holy Spirit to lead this worker clearly and powerfully minister through him in the life of this dear brother in Christ.

Welcome Back!: We are so happy to see everyone who has joined with us this morning. Please take note of a few changes since we last gathered together.

- Please leave two empty seats between you and the next family grouping.
- Please do not congregate in the lobby, café, or sanctuary.
- Please wear a mask on entry, exit, and during our time singing together.
- Children, age 6 weeks through just finished second grade will meet in the lower level through the entire worship service. They will not be asked to wear masks or social distance. If you would prefer to have your children stay quietly with you in the sanctuary, please feel free to do so.
- Please show grace and kindness to one another as we make adjustments. If you have concerns, don't hesitate to contact one of the elders.

Message Reflection

What do we owe each other? For Christians, this question is answered by looking to Jesus, who gave everything to welcome “the other” into his family. Just as Paul commands the Roman church to look past the differences between Jew and Gentile, we too must consider the divisions within the church today. How are we called to pursue unity by embracing “the other”?
