CAC NEWS

MISSION UPDATE – INCA LINK: Several Ecuador Inca Link workers will finally return to the field after being stuck in the United States due to COVID-19 restrictions. Pray that their travel goes smoothly.

Pray for several Inca Link ministries, including one in Colombia that will involve teaching English in order to raise money for an evangelism project. Also, in Peru, a sewing workshop will produce masks to sell in the community, and Inca Link Peru is seeking to raise money to start a soup kitchen ministry. Please be in prayer for all these ministries.

FOOD BANK SERVING: We have partnered with the Central Pennsylvania Food Bank to help them prepare Crisis Response boxes for our community. We will serve every fourth Tuesday from 5-7 pm at the Farm Show Complex. The next opportunity to serve is on July 28. You can sign up to participate at:

To encourage and equip people to love God, love our neighbors, and share the gospel of Jesus Christ.

Message Reflection

This week we focused in on the source of Paul's joy and on how he sought to find refreshment in his relationship with others. To contrast these sentiments, we seem to be living through a season without a whole lot of joy or interaction with others. Where are you looking for joy right now? Have difficult circumstances robbed you of joy or pointed you to find joy in Christ? What practices could you put in place to cultivate joy even in the midst of this challenging season? How can you, right now in this time, seek to build up and refresh others?
