

Welcome to CAC!

We're glad that you have joined us this morning. We invite you to worship with us as we realign our perspective and remind ourselves of God's work in and around us. If you're new to CAC, please don't hesitate to contact us at cacharrisburg.org or visit us on Facebook.

CAC NEWS

MISSION UPDATE – INDONESIA: Ed and Sue Danneker praise God for a smooth transition back to their church building after 10 weeks of COVID lockdown. "We have had good attendance and even visitors," they write. A video system is working well for the overflow crowd, and the service broadcasts live on Facebook for those unable to come and others far and wide who view the worship time. "Pray that God will continue to add to our number as the members share their faith in the community."

BAPTISM: Our baptism will be a bit different this year, but we are still planning to hold our celebration on August 23 during the worship service. If you are interested in being baptized, please contact Pastor Scott.

SUPPORT DRIVE FOR LAWNTON TEACHERS: We want to encourage our local teachers as they head back to the classroom. We asked what would be most helpful to them, and they requested, unsurprisingly, hand sanitizer, sanitizing wipes, and tissues. If you are able, please bring these items to the church and we will distribute them as school begins later this month.

Do you have a need: If you have any need, don't hesitate to contact us. We can be of support to our family in prayer and in tangible needs. Contact the office directly or use the website forms to reach us.

Message Reflection

In Habits of Grace by David Mathis he writes, "When we get alone with the Bible, we are not alone. God has not left us to ourselves to understand his words and feed our own souls. No matter how thin your training, no matter how spotty your routine, the Helper stands ready. Take up the text in confidence that God is primed to bless your being with his very breath."

What does your current habit of engaging with God's Word look like?

How can you grow in this habit of grace?
