CAC NEWS

Mission Update – SPAIN: With Spain's ongoing COVID-19 crisis, most Alliance workers are confined to the municipality or state where they reside due to limits on home gatherings. This will directly affect the usual hospitality, outreach, and travel during the Christmas holidays, though many team members have plans to reach out within the established guidelines. Field Director Tim Westergren writes, "As we celebrate the Incarnation, may Christ dwell in our homes richly and extend His love through us to our immediate neighbors and contacts. We are completely dependent on God and can do nothing on our own. We need the Spirit to manifest Himself in each one of us for the benefit of those around us" (see 1 Corinthians 12:7).

Thank you for participating in our Year End

Offering: We continued our tradition that during the month of December, all monies that were given to CAC beyond our normal expenses were given away. This year the amount was evenly divided to support three ministries – the ENVISION site led by Brandon & Bethany Nutter in the Dominican Republic, The Rock Church in Allison Hill, and the Central PA Food Bank. We will announce those amounts next week.

Message Reflection

Oftentimes, a new season in life will bring refreshment or energy. New seasons can have this way of fostering feelings of hope, excitement, or anticipation. They seem like a good chance to put certain things behind, to embrace other things, and to get a fresh start in life. But sometimes seasons don't carry that energy. Sometimes we feel like we are limping into a new season, or we just aren't sure that what lies ahead of us is any better than what was behind. How do you feel at the start of this new year? How can you adjust your gaze as we enter this new season to "fix your eyes on Jesus?"
