

Welcome to CAC!

We're glad that you have joined us this morning to worship King Jesus! We invite you to worship with us as we realign our perspective and remind ourselves of God's work in and around us. If you're new to CAC, please don't hesitate to contact us at cacharrisburg.org or visit us on Facebook.

CAC NEWS

Missions Spotlight – PARAGUAY: We value your prayers for 21 women who are receiving gospel teaching in three small groups. They are learning through a program called the Magdalene Project, which involves encounters that Jesus had with seven women during His ministry on earth. We treasure your prayers for these women to find Jesus as Savior, King, and Lord. Pray for wisdom for Belen, Juana, and Yolanda, an IW, who are leading these three groups.

Youth Sunday: Next Sunday morning, our students in 6th-12th grades will lead our worship service. The Holy Spirit is at work transforming and conforming these young people into the image of Jesus! Come worship and celebrate with us!

Missions Weekend: Bob & Cheryl Fugate, who serve in Mexico will spend time with us in May. On Saturday, May 18 starting at 6:30 pm, we will hear from them, have a Q&A session and then share Mexican desserts. They will also speak Sunday morning and our quarterly offering, collected that day, will go to their mission work.

Reflection

I want to encourage you to look back at one particular part of our passage this morning. It's a single sentence, not only in English, but in the original Greek as well. It's the last sentence in verse 13. "You must live at peace with each other." This isn't just for church leaders. It's for every follower of Jesus. With that in mind, is there any area of your walk with your church family where peace isn't present? How might you, through the empowerment of Holy Spirit, pursue peace in that area so that you may live with this peace that Paul wisely and lovingly calls for?
