CAC NEWS

Missions Spotlight – INDONESIA: Praise God for the three new believers in Thailand who were baptized last month. Ed and Sue Danneker ask that we pray that they will continue to grow strong in their faith. Pray for their Saturday youth outreach that God will draw young people to himself and that relationships will build between the youth and believers. Pray that God will provide a place for the Danneker's to live on their home assignment starting in July 2026.

PACKING KITS FOR THE HOMELESS: Have you ever passed a homeless person asking for money and thought 'I wish I could help them out but I don't have, or want to give, cash?' Keeping kits for the homeless in your car is a great way to do something for them that is meaningful and helpful. Come join us in the lower level at 9 AM on March 28 to pack kits for the homeless and learn about the kind of items that are helpful to them. Sign up to donate items and to attend our bag packing event through the link in this week's email. Please bring your items to the church by March 22.

QUARTERLY OFFERING: This quarter's special offering will benefit Luke Camara, international worker to Portugal who joined us on February 8, and the Kits for the Homeless that we will pack on March 28. All cash and any designated gifts received at worship on March 8 will be included in the offering.

Reflection

If Jesus is every believer's brother (and the writer of Hebrews makes this unequivocal claim!) then what does that make us? Siblings. It's as simple as that. Scot McKnight in his translation of the New Testament is fond of using this very word to translate the term "brothers and sisters." Whether you prefer "siblings" or "brothers and sisters" is fine. What isn't fine, is to view your fellow followers as anything but family. If this were truly to be our collective identity, what would change in our life together? What difference could this make as we seek to reach our community for our King?
