CAC NEWS

Missions Spotlight – INDONESIA: Please pray for the national church conference starting in 10 days in Makasar. There are eight candidates for the Indo church president and the campaigning and ethnocentrism has potential to be divisive. Please pray for unity in the church and for the ministry of U.S. C&MA President Jonathan Schaeffer at that conference.

YOUTH EVENTS: This morning our students are leading our worship service. On May 20, they will meet at the Douglas' home at 6 pm for dinner and a game night. If you can help provide dinner, sign-up today.

MEN'S BREAKFAST: This Saturday, May 16 at 9 am our men will gather for a good meal, time to enjoy friendship, and be encouraged by a devotional. Invite friends and neighbors to join as well. You can sign-up this morning to help with planning.

WOMEN'S FRIES AL FRESCO: Ladies come enjoy an evening on the deck with "Fry Guy" Mike's Homemade fries at the Pfaunmiller's home on May 29 at 6:30. Bring a smile and a friend and enjoy the evening together.

Reflection

Throughout scripture, you will find no shortage of godly mothers. Hannah has always been one of my favorites! In many ways she exemplifies what a truly faithful mother looks like. Let me encourage you to take some time today to read 1 Samuel 1:1-2:10. What kind of mother is Hannah? Who or what most shapes her mothering? Even if you are not a mother, her example of unwavering devotion to the Father can still be instructive for you. How so?
