Missions Spotlight – VENEZUELA: Please pray for the people of Venezuela following devastating 7.2 and 7.5 magnitude earthquakes this past week. Many families have lost homes, loved ones are missing or injured, and life has been deeply disrupted. The nation was already facing a difficult economic situation. Many are going hungry and losing jobs; Venezuelans are in desperate need of help and hope.

WOMEN'S ICE CREAM OUTING: Women, meet at the church at 6:30 pm on July 21. We will head to Sweet to the Soul in Newport. You can try individual flavors or create your own ice cream flight for sampling. Sign-up today so we can prep for carpooling.

FAREWELL PICNIC: Please join us downstairs to share a meal after worship this morning in celebration of Pastor Will and his family. The Douglas family will be heading south later this month. Continue to pray for them as they continue seeking God's direction in the next steps.

Reflection

Obviously, I had no clue we'd be here at these verses for my final Sunday with you. But God knew. In His sweet providence that's what He wanted. I think it's quite fitting. Priests came and went. Pastors, likewise, come and go. But the One who is the Great High Priest and the Good Shepherd, is forever with us AND for us! His priesthood never ends and never fails. I pray that would be your comfort in the days and months and years ahead. Trust Him and only Him! That, my sweet brothers and sisters, will NEVER be a misplaced trust.
