1 Thessalonians 2:17-20 (Douglas translation)

But when we were forcibly separated from you, family, for a short time (at least in person not in our heart), a deep longing drove us to try even harder to see you in person. This is so because we wanted to come to you (I, Paul, desired this again and again), but Satan hindered us. For who is our hope, our joy, our crown of boasting in the presence of our Lord Jesus when He comes, if it's not you? It is you all, you see, who are our glory and joy!

CLAIMING God's people as your FAMILY is a sign of true love for the church.

LONGING TO BE WITH God's people is a sign of true love for the church.

EXULTING IN God's people is a sign of true love for the church.
