1 Thessalonians 3:1-5 (Douglas translation)

But now Timothy has come back to us after being with you and proclaimed the good news to us about your allegiance and love as well as the fact that you always think fondly of us. You long to see us just as we long to see you. So, in all our distress and suffering, we have been encouraged by you, family, because of your allegiance. For this reason, we are now truly living, as long as you all are standing firm in the Lord.

It's good news when faithfulness REMAINS

It's good news when faithfulness REDOUNDS

It's good news when faithfulness REFUSES

- to GIVE IN

- to GIVE UP
