1 Thessalonians 4:1-8 (Douglas translation)

Therefore, finally, family, we are asking and encouraging you in the Lord Jesus that as you learned from us how you must walk in order to please God, and indeed you are walking this way, continue to do so more and more. For you know the commands we gave you which originally came via the Lord Jesus. This is God's will - your devotion to Him. Specifically, to keep yourself from sexual immorality and to control your body in holiness and honor, rather than giving into lustful passions like those people who do not know God. Do not mistreat or exploit your sibling in this manner because the Lord brings about justice in regard to all these matters, just as we forewarned you and emphatically urged you to heed. For God did not call us to corruption but into devotion. Therefore, the one who rejects this is not rejecting man, but God, the One who gives His Holy Spirit to you.

The PURPOSE of this walk.

The NECESSITY of this walk.

The LOOK of this walk.
