Missions Spotlight – WEST AFRICA: Praise the Lord for the ministry of the Deaf school. Dorm students arrived yesterday, so happy to be back. We praise the Lord that we were able to complete dorm renovations before the start of the school year. Pray as we secure funds for Deaf children to attend whose parents are having financial difficulties.

Reflection

Jesus closes the Beattitudes with an encouragement to, "rejoice and be glad" even in persecution. How can we have joy in hardship..

We are in good company: When we face friction because of our commitment to Christ, we are walking the exact same road as the ancient prophets who stood firm for God. Opposition isn't a sign that we have failed; it is often proof that we belong to Him.

Our anchor is eternal: Earthly approval is a shifting shadow, and temporary rejection hurts. But Jesus points our eyes upward. There is a great reward waiting in heaven—not because we earned it through our perfection, but because a loving Savior sees every quiet tear, every swallowed insult, and every act of faithfulness done in His name.
